Dear Judge,

On June 23, 2009 I received a package of paperwork from The Garden City Group, Inc., GM Chief Agent, PO Box 9386 Dublin Ohio 43017-4286. This included information "In Re GENERAL MOTORS CORP ET AL Debtors. Basically This was a notice of Chapter 11 order, Notice of Site Hearing + a copy of the interim order signed by you.

I realize with a corp. as large as GM, and with the govt getting involved, the little people who own less than 27,000,000 million shares will lose. I don't mind losing when things are fair. In these papers there are DECLARED DUE DATES of JUNE 19, 2009 at 5:00 P; JUNE 18th, 2009 at 4:00 PM

It is hard to contact any of the attorney's listed etc, when the Due Dates have been expired for at least 4 days when you receive notification. As a Judge I always felt it was your job to stick up for us the little people and make things fair. I know there is nothing you can do at this late date, but you have the power to see that the attorneys make notifications on time for us to object,
